ABSTRACT

Results from the 1993 administration of the Wisconsin Third Grade Reading Test are presented in a 43-page table that lists the results for each school district and school in Wisconsin. Statewide, over 52,000 students from over 300 districts took this test. The following categories for each 4-digit district code and each 8-digit school code represented within the state are reported: (1) number of students below the performance standard; (2) percentage below the standard; (3) number of inconclusive results; (4) percentage of inconclusive results; (5) number of students above the performance standard; (6) percentage above the performance standard; (7) number of students not tested; (8) exceptional educational needs (EEN) students enrolled; (9) number of EEN students not tested; and (10) percentage of EEN students not tested. In 1993, the performance standard was 28 or more items correct. Data for those with 22 through 27 items correct were considered inconclusive. Those with less than 21 items correct fell below the performance standard. (SLD)

Students Not Tested

The attached Comprehension Performance Report Summary by District and by School Within District includes a column called "Total Number of Students Not Tested." The figures in this column represent the numbers of students not tested in each school and district.

Students were not tested for one of three reasons:

1. Absent during the testing period.
2. Exceptional Educational Needs (EEN). Based on DPI guidelines, dist icts determined that the Third Grade Reading Test was inappropriate for these students.
3. Limited English Proficient (LEP). These students were not tested because their English language skills did not meet criterion (e), as defined under the DPI rules in the Wisconsin Code (PI 12.03(3)): "Understands and speaks English well but needs assistance in reading and writing in English to achieve at a level appropriate for his or her age or grade."
